Why Attend?

The most important reason for you to attend this convention is to learn. You will learn from the educational seminars! You will learn by listening to the outstanding speakers! You will learn the "how to's" & "why's" of our camping business from the campground tour! This convention is an opportunity to visit with those experts, your friends and other industry members, for a free flowing exchange of ideas and vital information that is specifically designed to meet your needs. Your business and the industry will move forward because of your attendance.

Cracker-barrel!

This is your time to discuss: anything and everything. The cracker-barrel has become a mainstay at the fall convention. It is your chance to ask a room full of experts in the campground industry your most important question. Because of the great turnout the cracker-barrel is again scheduled for Sunday night.

Campground Tour!

On Monday October 18th we will set out on buses to tour area campgrounds. There is no better way to learn new ideas than to tour campgrounds and have the opportunity to ask the owner/operator questions about how and why he/she does things certain ways. This year we will be visiting

Beaver Trail Campground
River View Campground & Canoe Livery
Brown's Landing RV Park
Tawas RV Park
Troll Landing Camp & Canoe Rental

Hospitality!

The convention is about relaxing, having a good time, making new friends and visiting with your friends you haven't seen in a while. During the convention you will have ample opportunities in an informal atmosphere to share ideas relating to all facets of the campground industry with other campgrounds owners/operators.
